Re: Avido, LLC v. Joseph L. Damiani, Opposition No. 9122833 (TTAB)

Dear Mr. McDonald:

Scott H. Kaliko

T. 201-739-5555
F. 201-644-0039

SKaliko@kalikolaw.com

I am in receipt of your letter of September 22, 2015. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P 37, neither you nor did your client meet or confer with my me or my office before filing your Motion for a 30-day extension of the trial calendar. Nevertheless, my client does not object to your Motion.

Next, we strongly disagree with your your demand of September 22, 2015, that we withdraw our Initial Disclosures filed by my office on September 19, 2015, because such Initial Disclosures contained confidential information. Specifically, the Initial Disclosures contained no designated confidential or personal identifiable information (PII). The telephone number of Mrs. Lance was voluntarily provided by Mrs. Lance to my office as the contact number contained within a demand letter sent to my office that my client withdraw their Untitled States Trademark Application. Serial No. 864817523. See Email of Avido, LLC. Accordingly, we reject your assertion that our office conducted itself in an improper manner.

Should you have any questions, feel free to contact me.

Very truly your,

Scott H. Kaliko
